"Sunny Jim" Schaffer, the Butte first aseman, is one of the most popular players in the league. At Spokane re-ently Schaffer was given an ovation ach time he came to the bat, accord-ng to reports, and the Washington fans everence him almost as much as they to their own players. Reilly recently nade an offer to Wilmot for Schaffer's services, but the Butte manager will probably refuse to let him go, as he is me of the best first-sackers in the

"Soldier" Cook is making good with the Boise team, according to reports from the Idalio town. Cook made number of brilliant stops in his first tame against the Indians besides assisting in a fast double play. The Botse fans like him and think McCloskey did a good job when he secured the ex-Elder.

After several days of argument between the two managers it has been decide that Butte will not forfelt the came to Spokane to have been played April 26. On Tuesday Reilly made a claim for the game and it was conceded by the Butte manager, but later the point was raised that Butte had permission from the league meeting to play the exhibition game at Salt Lake Sunday and were unavoidably delayed. On this ground President Lucas has ruled that it is merely a postponed game and not forfelted.

The Butte baseball team has its headcounters at the Kenyon botel, and each evening impromptu reunions are held in the hotel corridors. Most of the Miners are well known in this city and they have many visitors each day.

WELCOMED HOME WITH A BRASS BAND

Boise Fans Strew Flowers in Paths of "Honest John" and His Followers -"Mac" Talks Shop.

O ROMAN CONQUEROR ever received a more rousing welcome open his return after a viccampaign than torious "Honest John" McClockey and his nifty bunch of ball-tossers when they arrived in Boise Monday afternoon. "Mac" and his followers are the heroes of the hour in the little Idahe town, as the following from the Boise Statesman will show. "The members of the Boise baseball club had a joyfuj home-coming. As many enthusiasts as could find room on the depot platform greeted the clever players when they stepped from the train. Carriages were waiting, and into them the players were hustled. Headed by the Columbia hand, the procession started east on Grove street to Seventh, north on Seventh to Main and west on Main to Idanha. Crowds stood on the sidewalks and cheered the men who came home with four games out of five to their credit. It was a rouging, hearty welcome to a deserving team, and the players appreciated the compliment." They came the liverymen in the resulting the complete of in the little Idaho town, as the following

"Then came the liverymen to the rescue, and Messrs French, Lane, Cowley and Cole generously offered to carry the good players, while Bob Wooden brought up the rear with Homer Davenport, who was mistaken for Pitcher Thompson and kidnaped with the rest.

"We surprised the natives in Salt Lake, said Manager McCloskey. The boys did proudly. If Thompson hadn't been rushed from the railroad train to the pitcher's box we would have made it five straight. He had them whipped to a stand-still in the last game, but rain robbed us of another victory.

"The weather was very cold and disagreeable in Salt Lake, which accounts for the light attendance. It looks as though Boise were going to turn out the best crowds of all for the first series. There is no use talking, we have the climate here. I hope the people are well satisfied with our work. Down in Salt Lake several people came and shook hands satisfied with our work. Down in Salt Lake several people came and shook hands with me, saying they were from different Idaho towns and were proud of the Boise team. It encouraged the boys and pleased me very much.

"Dan McFarian has a cold, but he will pitch the opening game just the same, and win it, too, if determination and effort count for anything. Dan did great work in Sait Lake. Wait till you see Thompson. He is a splendid young fellow and a grand pitcher, too. Con Starkells performed like a veteran. The boys supported him like giants, and he held the heavy hitters of the Sait Lake team down in fine shape. Bobby Blewett is getting into coudition, and we are well fixed for pitchers now. Hanson caught nice games and batted well. I can't say too much for the rest of the boys. They worked like beavers at the but and in the field."

EUREKA BALL TEAM ACCEPTS C. C. C.'S DEFI

The Cleareland Commission company's sam at Salt Lake recently issued a challenge to play anw amateur baseball nine in the State for $160 a game. The management of the Eureka A. Up to this time the Cleavelands have failed to come up with their coin or arrange for a game.

Pride of Boise Humbled in the Dust by the Indian Tribe From special to The Tribune.

OISE, Idu., May 4.—The Spokane baseball players enrued their bed and board today at the expense of Pitcher Starkells of the Boise Proit Pickers." Starkells suffered rom enlargement of the heart and astigmatism. He had five outbursts of generosity in as many innings, and of generosity in as many innings, and each outburst landed a blue-shirted "Indian" on first buse as a result of the pitcher's failure to find the plate. The young slab artist was nervous. It was his first league game in Boise, where he is well known, and he was ever-anxious to win. He seemed unable to recover control of the ball, and Blewett was substituted in the first inding. Blewott, who is rursing a sore arm, held Spokane down to three hits, two of which were what is known as "scrutchy." Darmann kept Boise's hite well scattered. O'Connell was the only member of the local team to find the ball with any degree of success.

was the only member of the local team to find the ball with any degree of success.

Hourtz, Ferris, Stanley, Hausen and Bubbitt get the bulk of the applause for good work in the held. Houtz discouraged Dammann and Reilly by helding hard line drives from their bats in the seventh and fourth ionings. He bad to do some tall sprinting to reach the ball, and in Heilly's case he fell that on his back after making the catch. Ferris made a beautiful catch of Cook's short fly in the fifth, and Stanley picked a foul from Hanson's bat in the eighth right against the grand stand netting. Hanson held a cockecrew foul which Dammann pepped up in the second, and Babbitt accepted six chances in faulitiess style.

Dammann pitched a strong game and was well supported. Score:

to be the only great racers who will
